

JUDGE PARKER MOVES IN A BLAZE OF GLORY

(Continued from First Page.)

lawn, sewing machines, mowing machines, farm implements of various kinds, as well as a great number of articles every day purchased, are made in this country and sold abroad cheaper than they are sold here. Some are sold one-fifth cheaper, others one-quarter and still others, one-third, after paying the expense of transportation across the ocean. That fifth or quarter or third represents the amount the purchaser is obliged to place in the manufacturer's box over and above the fair value of the thing purchased, as evidenced by the price at which he sells it abroad. His compels you to pay the amount by means of a statute which places the duty so high that foreign competition is cut off."

After pointing out the necessity for the development of our foreign trade, Judge Parker addressed himself to the trust question, saying:

"Our opponents have the effrontery to claim that they alone have shown any desire to oppose the trusts. Their claim is as false as it is flagrant."

Democrats Started It.

"So far from this being the fact, the record shows that time and again the representatives of the Democratic party have begun prosecution under the so-called Sherman act. Attorney-General Harmon continued to the end, the first successful prosecution under the anti-trust law. Attorney-General Harmon asked for appropriations to enforce that act. He reported to Congress that witnesses against the trusts should be exempted from liability so that they could not in the plea of privilege, but it was not heeded by a Republican Congress. He asked for an appropriation to carry on the work in both a special and a general respect, but a Republican Congress would not."

"An indignant clamor that was not to be denied, at last forced the hands of the Republican party, both in the matter of legislation and of appropriation. The statute creating the Department of Labor and Commerce was passed and an appropriation of half a million was made. The greater part of the money, appropriated by the Republican party, was given to the public treasury, but the legislation served its purpose."

Unlimited Power.

"Born, as it was, of a union between the trusts and the Republican party, the parallel of this legislation in scarcely any other country does not exist upon our statute books to-day."

"It puts into the hands of the President and of the Republican party, the means of continuing its hold upon the reins of government without limit as to time, through the possession of secret trusts which, under the terms of the legislation itself, he may or may not make public or private, as he directs."

"We know full well how the opportunity for the use of that legislation has been availed of in this campaign. No statute could have been better devised for the purpose of financing the present election of the candidate of the Republican party or for its indefinite perpetuation in power."

No Spy Is Needed.

"In the promotion of our business interests, we need a department of Commerce and Labor. But we do not want a Department of Commerce and Labor whose secretary shall go out from it every day, after he has filled his brain and his note-books with the secrets of all the great corporations and commissions, which depend upon the government for business or favors, in order not to serve the people, but to raise money or corrupt them. 'Send us our people want a department to tend to the business of the government into the hands of the service of a great political commission, in order to put forth doctored statistics. We want a Department of Commerce and Labor, which will furnish our merchants, farmers, manufacturers and workers with the fullest and latest information, intelligently and honestly obtained and so fairly prepared that dependence may be placed upon it as a real guide."

The World for Markets.

"We want to know what other countries are doing in industries, and this is all the more important because we feel sure that in none of them has the

THE ROOT OF THE MATTER.

He Cured Himself of Serious Stomach Trouble, by Getting Down to First Principles.

A man of large affairs in one of our prominent Eastern cities, by too close attention to business, too little exercise and too many club dinners, finally began to pay nature's tax, levied in the form of chronic stomach trouble; the failure of his digestion brought about a nervous irritability making it impossible for him to give himself to his daily business, and finally degenerating the kidneys and heart."

In his own words, he says: "I consulted one physician after another, and each one seemed to understand my trouble, but all the same, they each failed to bring me the return of my former digestion, appetite and vigor. For two years I went from pillar to post, from one sanitarium to another. I gave up smoking, I quit coffee, and even renounced my daily glass or two of beer; but without any marked improvement."

"Friends had often advised me to try a well known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often perused the newspaper advertisements of the remedy, but never took any stock in advertised medicines, nor could believe a five-cent patent medicine would touch my case."

"To make a long story short, I finally bought a couple of packages at the nearest drug store and took two or three tablets after each meal, and occasionally a tablet between meals, when I felt any feeling of nausea or discomfort."

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health, and before the two packages were gone, I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was going to cure completely, and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and enjoy my coffee and cigar, and I would suppose I had ever known the horrors of dyspepsia."

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote to the proprietors of the remedy, asking for information as to what the tablets contained, and they replied that the principal ingredients were aseptic pepsin (government test), malt diastase and other natural digestives, which digest food regardless of the condition of the stomach. The root of the matter is this: The digestive elements contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food, give the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate and the nerves and whole system receive the nourishment which can only come from food. Stimulants and nerve tonics never give real strength; they give a fictitious strength, invariably followed by reaction. Every drop of blood, every nerve and tissue is manufactured from our daily food, and if you can insure its prompt action and complete digestion by the regular use of an good and wholesome remedy as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, you will have no need of nerve tonics and stimulant."

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been in the market only a few years, yet probably every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain now sells them and considers them the most popular and successful of any preparation for stomach trouble."

BEAUTY OF SKIN PURITY OF BLOOD

Ancient and Modern Ideas on these Interesting Subjects.

UP-TO-DATE METHODS

For Purifying and Beautifying the Skin, Scalp, Hair and Hands.

Socrates called beauty a short-lived tyranny, Plato a privilege of nature, Theocritus, a delightful prejudice, Theophrastus a silent cheat, Carnecades a solitary kingdom, Homer a glorious gift of nature, Ovid a favor of the gods. Aristotle affirmed that beauty was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world, and yet none of these distinguished authorities has left us even a hint of how beauty is to be perpetuated, or the ravages of age and disease defied. Time soon blunts the lily and the rose into the pallor of age, disease dots the fair face with cutaneous disfigurements and crimson spots, the Roman nose with unsightly flukes, moth, if not rust, corrupts the glory of eyes, teeth, and lips yet beautiful by defacing the complexion, and fills the sensitive soul with agony."

"If such be the unhappy condition of one afflicted with slight skin blemishes, what must be the feelings of those in whom torturing humors have for years run riot, covering the skin with scales and sores and charging the blood with poisonous elements to become a part of the system until death? It is in the treatment of torturing, disgusting humors and affections of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, that the Cuticura remedies have achieved their greatest success. Original in composition, scientifically compounded, absolutely pure, unchangeable in any climate, always ready, and agreeable to the most delicate and sensitive, they present to young and old the most successful curatives of modern times."

"Born, as it was, of a union between the trusts and the Republican party, the parallel of this legislation in scarcely any other country does not exist upon our statute books to-day."

"It puts into the hands of the President and of the Republican party, the means of continuing its hold upon the reins of government without limit as to time, through the possession of secret trusts which, under the terms of the legislation itself, he may or may not make public or private, as he directs."

"We know full well how the opportunity for the use of that legislation has been availed of in this campaign. No statute could have been better devised for the purpose of financing the present election of the candidate of the Republican party or for its indefinite perpetuation in power."

"In the promotion of our business interests, we need a department of Commerce and Labor. But we do not want a Department of Commerce and Labor whose secretary shall go out from it every day, after he has filled his brain and his note-books with the secrets of all the great corporations and commissions, which depend upon the government for business or favors, in order not to serve the people, but to raise money or corrupt them. 'Send us our people want a department to tend to the business of the government into the hands of the service of a great political commission, in order to put forth doctored statistics. We want a Department of Commerce and Labor, which will furnish our merchants, farmers, manufacturers and workers with the fullest and latest information, intelligently and honestly obtained and so fairly prepared that dependence may be placed upon it as a real guide."

"We want to know what other countries are doing in industries, and this is all the more important because we feel sure that in none of them has the

He Cured Himself of Serious Stomach Trouble, by Getting Down to First Principles.

A man of large affairs in one of our prominent Eastern cities, by too close attention to business, too little exercise and too many club dinners, finally began to pay nature's tax, levied in the form of chronic stomach trouble; the failure of his digestion brought about a nervous irritability making it impossible for him to give himself to his daily business, and finally degenerating the kidneys and heart."

In his own words, he says: "I consulted one physician after another, and each one seemed to understand my trouble, but all the same, they each failed to bring me the return of my former digestion, appetite and vigor. For two years I went from pillar to post, from one sanitarium to another. I gave up smoking, I quit coffee, and even renounced my daily glass or two of beer; but without any marked improvement."

"Friends had often advised me to try a well known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often perused the newspaper advertisements of the remedy, but never took any stock in advertised medicines, nor could believe a five-cent patent medicine would touch my case."

"To make a long story short, I finally bought a couple of packages at the nearest drug store and took two or three tablets after each meal, and occasionally a tablet between meals, when I felt any feeling of nausea or discomfort."

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health, and before the two packages were gone, I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was going to cure completely, and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and enjoy my coffee and cigar, and I would suppose I had ever known the horrors of dyspepsia."

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote to the proprietors of the remedy, asking for information as to what the tablets contained, and they replied that the principal ingredients were aseptic pepsin (government test), malt diastase and other natural digestives, which digest food regardless of the condition of the stomach. The root of the matter is this: The digestive elements contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food, give the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate and the nerves and whole system receive the nourishment which can only come from food. Stimulants and nerve tonics never give real strength; they give a fictitious strength, invariably followed by reaction. Every drop of blood, every nerve and tissue is manufactured from our daily food, and if you can insure its prompt action and complete digestion by the regular use of an good and wholesome remedy as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, you will have no need of nerve tonics and stimulant."

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been in the market only a few years, yet probably every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain now sells them and considers them the most popular and successful of any preparation for stomach trouble."

He Cured Himself of Serious Stomach Trouble, by Getting Down to First Principles.

A man of large affairs in one of our prominent Eastern cities, by too close attention to business, too little exercise and too many club dinners, finally began to pay nature's tax, levied in the form of chronic stomach trouble; the failure of his digestion brought about a nervous irritability making it impossible for him to give himself to his daily business, and finally degenerating the kidneys and heart."

In his own words, he says: "I consulted one physician after another, and each one seemed to understand my trouble, but all the same, they each failed to bring me the return of my former digestion, appetite and vigor. For two years I went from pillar to post, from one sanitarium to another. I gave up smoking, I quit coffee, and even renounced my daily glass or two of beer; but without any marked improvement."

"Friends had often advised me to try a well known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often perused the newspaper advertisements of the remedy, but never took any stock in advertised medicines, nor could believe a five-cent patent medicine would touch my case."

"To make a long story short, I finally bought a couple of packages at the nearest drug store and took two or three tablets after each meal, and occasionally a tablet between meals, when I felt any feeling of nausea or discomfort."

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health, and before the two packages were gone, I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was going to cure completely, and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and enjoy my coffee and cigar, and I would suppose I had ever known the horrors of dyspepsia."

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote to the proprietors of the remedy, asking for information as to what the tablets contained, and they replied that the principal ingredients were aseptic pepsin (government test), malt diastase and other natural digestives, which digest food regardless of the condition of the stomach. The root of the matter is this: The digestive elements contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food, give the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate and the nerves and whole system receive the nourishment which can only come from food. Stimulants and nerve tonics never give real strength; they give a fictitious strength, invariably followed by reaction. Every drop of blood, every nerve and tissue is manufactured from our daily food, and if you can insure its prompt action and complete digestion by the regular use of an good and wholesome remedy as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, you will have no need of nerve tonics and stimulant."

DEMOCRATIC MANAGERS IN A HAPPY MOOD

(Continued from First Page.)

not been shown the slightest reason for changing my opinion. I did predict the defeat of Dawson, the Republican gubernatorial candidate in West Virginia, if anything approaching a fair election were held. I am willing to stand by that opinion and want the local editor to stand by it. I did not predict that the electoral vote of West Virginia would be cast for Parker and Davis."

Several Republican editors of West Virginia appear to have gone into hysterics over a statement which I made in a letter from Charleston, that the electoral vote of West Virginia, that it was the firm purpose of the Democrats, if they ever get control of the State again, to eliminate the negro from politics. However, the Democratic press of the State has quite generally declared that statement absolutely correct, and that which Republican papers affected to regard as an incautious admission of the correspondent of a Democratic newspaper is frankly asserted to be a fact."

Would Cause No Surprise. I know that no human being can foretell the result of a national election. A few months ago, though, it did look possible to foretell the election of Mr. Roosevelt. A month ago, two weeks ago, ten days ago, or even a day, there were many chances favoring his election that could be counted on by Judge Parker. Still, I cannot predict the election of Judge Parker. But if the people should wake on next Wednesday morning and learn that the lawyer and judge instead of the cowboy and Rough Rider would occupy the White House for four years next March, I should not be surprised in the slightest degree."

Makes Them Hopeful. The large crowds which greeted Judge Parker in Connecticut to-day and their enthusiasm were chief topics at Democratic national headquarters. The nominee demonstrates every time he appears in public that he is capable of delivering as hard blows as any man who had appeared on the hustings in a long period. There is no room to doubt that he has already made thousands of votes for the Democratic national ticket. Democrats at headquarters were greatly interested to-day in the statement made in Collier's Weekly that Mr. Roosevelt was taking a hand in the Missouri campaign and endeavoring to compass the defeat of Folk, the Democratic gubernatorial nominee."

Must be True. Republicans outside of Missouri have been proclaiming that Mr. Roosevelt wanted to see Folk elected because he felt that he would be in a position to make a successful campaign in the Missouri State government. It has been asserted that the President desired the Republicans to endorse Folk's candidacy. Folk was the guest of the President at luncheon in the White House not long ago. Collier is uncompromising in its support of Mr. Roosevelt, so that the assertion that he is against the Missouri candidate, who stands for law, honesty and decency, may be regarded as true."

History Sometimes Repeats. A St. Louis Republican, whom I met while en route to this city from Washington yesterday, said that many Republicans of Missouri would vote for Roosevelt. He said that he was in the crowd at the courthouse here, when Mr. Roosevelt was elected, when these Missouri Republicans, who will vote for Folk learn that their national candidate—the great apostle of "decency" and "civil righteousness"—is working to accomplish the defeat of a man who has made the most courageous fight against official corruption that has been made in this country since the overthrow of the Tweed ring in this city, thirty years ago. It is hard to see how they can keep from voting for him. Twenty years ago to-morrow night, almost a day, Grover Cleveland, then candidate for the presidency, addressed a great mass meeting in Newark. The tremendous outpouring of the voters and their enthusiasm, convinced the Democrats that the Republicans would lose the electoral vote of the State. Democratic party stole my place. Mr. Cleveland is to speak in Newark to-morrow night. Democrats and others are wondering if history will repeat itself."

Watson is Bitter. MACON, GA., Nov. 3.—Thomas E. Watson, Populist candidate for President, spoke here to-day at Central Park, where a large crowd gathered to hear him. The crowd which heard him was not large, but there was evidently a liberal sprinkling of those of his own faith among the audience, which cheered vociferously as the speaker clinched a point. He was riding in a special car, containing for things that he formerly denounced.

"What would you think of a Baptist who would reply, when asked as to what he believed, 'I can't tell you until after the next election meeting?' That is exactly what Parker did in a political sense. Who is Parker? We know of Grover Cleveland and Bryan before they became candidates, but who heard of Parker until the Democrats decided to run him for President?"

Referring to the accusations that he was in the pay of the Republican party, Mr. Watson said:

"How do I meet the expenses of my campaign? Because I am rich enough to do it, and you all know I made it in the courthouse, and with my pen. I have in the warehouse of Augusta two hundred and fifty bales of cotton, with more to come."

"The battle will not end on November 8th. I shall continue with all those who are with me, to build up a party of Jeffersonian, and not Hamiltonian, principles. You had just as well throw your vote away on me as on Parker, for if you cast your vote for him I will be sure to throw it away. If the Democrats surely thrown away. If the Democrats surely thrown away. If the Democrats surely thrown away."

Mr. Watson referred feelingly to the fact that the educational fund had been received as a charity student at Mercer University, located in this city. At the conclusion of his address the big body of Mercer students who were in attendance rallied around him and made the rafters ring with their college yell."

Double Meetings. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Nov. 3.—Politics were extremely lively last night at Palmouth, in Stafford county. Both the Democrats and Republicans had mass meetings, and speakers from a distance were at each. At the Democratic meeting Congressman John F. Rixey, Lieutenant Governor Joseph E. Willard and District Elector C. C. Carlin were speakers. A fine audience was present and close attention was given to the speeches. Notwithstanding efforts made on the outside to draw the crowd away.

At the Republican meeting, which was only a short distance away, the speakers were Mr. E. L. Howard, of Herndon, Fairfax county, Republican candidate for Congress in the Eighth District, who is opposing Congressman Rixey, Democratic candidate for re-election, and W. D. King, of Blount, Loudoun county. At this meeting a much smaller crowd was present."

ROBERT E. LEE, JR. Large and Enthusiastic Crowds Greet Him in the Southwest. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) JONESTOWN, VA., Nov. 3.—Colonel Robert E. Lee, Jr., addressed a large and enthusiastic audience yesterday at the courthouse here. It being understood that Colonel Lee was a grandson of General Lee and great-grandson of Harry Lee, for whom the county was named, he drew a large crowd. No speaker has come to Lee county in the present campaign whose speech has received with more enthusiasm. He made a splendid argument on the political issues, and the people went away well pleased and encouraged. On Monday he spoke at Ewing, this county, to a good crowd; on Tuesday at Nurseries, where he had a splendid audience, and on Wednesday at Midway, where he had packed house. To-morrow he will speak at Blackwater. Colonel Lee is doing a good work, especially for Mr. Wisor.

EXPECTS WYSOR TO WIN. Attorney-General Anderson Sanguiue After Visit to Ninth. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., November 3.—Attorney-General William A. Anderson stopped here this afternoon en route from the Ninth District to Richmond. Major Anderson spoke in four of the counties of the district, and he is confident that he will carry the district. Major Anderson says apathy has almost wholly disappeared among the Democrats, and they are now enthusiastic and fully aroused. He expects to see a full vote all over the district."

Speech at Pocahontas. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) POCAHONTAS, VA., November 3.—The largest political audience of the season greeted Attorney-General William A. Anderson at the Opera House here last night, and the impression seemed a most favorable one.

The Major had the attention of the audience for nearly two hours, discussing the principal issues of the campaign and the duty of every patriotic citizen to vote the Democratic ticket. His discussion of the tariff question was very plain and convincing, showing the increased cost of living under the present protective tariff. He discussed the hard times from 1890 to 1897, showing that they were not due to a Democratic administration, but that other nations suffered during the same period as well as the United States. He declared that the Republican party had nothing to do with the present prosperous times; that they were not a result of Republican policies. He referred to the attitude of the administration toward the South, and called attention to the absence of Southern men in Roosevelt's Cabinet. He closed with a reference to Joseph C. Wisor, nominee for Congress in the district, and stated that his ability as a debater was a revelation to his constituents in the Constitutional Convention. He declared that Wisor would be a peer of any man in Congress, and that he was the world's wisest to enter the second time with him in debate. He expressed confidence that if the full vote of the district is polled Wisor will be elected by fifteen hundred majority or more, and closed with an eloquent appeal to the Democrats to come to the polls and vote. The Major expressed his pleasure at the presence of many ladies."

Inspection Is Concluded. Companies G and H, of the Seventeenth Regiment of Virginia Infantry, underwent the annual inspection last night, Colonel Jo Lane Stern, assistant inspector general, serving as inspector. Both companies were in excellent shape, but Company C, the Guard of the Commonwealth, as it was known under the old regime, was commended as being the best equipped and conditioned company in the regiment. George N. Shipwith commands the company, and is naturally proud of its excellent showing."

If Sorosis Shook paid the dealer a large profit they would be sold in every city in the country—but the dealer cannot raise the price and we will not lower the quality.—Adv.

DEMOCRATIC MANAGERS IN A HAPPY MOOD

(Continued from First Page.)

not been shown the slightest reason for changing my opinion. I did predict the defeat of Dawson, the Republican gubernatorial candidate in West Virginia, if anything approaching a fair election were held. I am willing to stand by that opinion and want the local editor to stand by it. I did not predict that the electoral vote of West Virginia would be cast for Parker and Davis."

Several Republican editors of West Virginia appear to have gone into hysterics over a statement which I made in a letter from Charleston, that the electoral vote of West Virginia, that it was the firm purpose of the Democrats, if they ever get control of the State again, to eliminate the negro from politics. However, the Democratic press of the State has quite generally declared that statement absolutely correct, and that which Republican papers affected to regard as an incautious admission of the correspondent of a Democratic newspaper is frankly asserted to be a fact."

Would Cause No Surprise. I know that no human being can foretell the result of a national election. A few months ago, though, it did look possible to foretell the election of Mr. Roosevelt. A month ago, two weeks ago, ten days ago, or even a day, there were many chances favoring his election that could be counted on by Judge Parker. Still, I cannot predict the election of Judge Parker. But if the people should wake on next Wednesday morning and learn that the lawyer and judge instead of the cowboy and Rough Rider would occupy the White House for four years next March, I should not be surprised in the slightest degree."

Makes Them Hopeful. The large crowds which greeted Judge Parker in Connecticut to-day and their enthusiasm were chief topics at Democratic national headquarters. The nominee demonstrates every time he appears in public that he is capable of delivering as hard blows as any man who had appeared on the hustings in a long period. There is no room to doubt that he has already made thousands of votes for the Democratic national ticket. Democrats at headquarters were greatly interested to-day in the statement made in Collier's Weekly that Mr. Roosevelt was taking a hand in the Missouri campaign and endeavoring to compass the defeat of Folk, the Democratic gubernatorial nominee."

Must be True. Republicans outside of Missouri have been proclaiming that Mr. Roosevelt wanted to see Folk elected because he felt that he would be in a position to make a successful campaign in the Missouri State government. It has been asserted that the President desired the Republicans to endorse Folk's candidacy. Folk was the guest of the President at luncheon in the White House not long ago. Collier is uncompromising in its support of Mr. Roosevelt, so that the assertion that he is against the Missouri candidate, who stands for law, honesty and decency, may be regarded as true."

History Sometimes Repeats. A St. Louis Republican, whom I met while en route to this city from Washington yesterday, said that many Republicans of Missouri would vote for Roosevelt. He said that he was in the crowd at the courthouse here, when Mr. Roosevelt was elected, when these Missouri Republicans, who will vote for Folk learn that their national candidate—the great apostle of "decency" and "civil righteousness"—is working to accomplish the defeat of a man who has made the most courageous fight against official corruption that has been made in this country since the overthrow of the Tweed ring in this city, thirty years ago. It is hard to see how they can keep from voting for him. Twenty years ago to-morrow night, almost a day, Grover Cleveland, then candidate for the presidency, addressed a great mass meeting in Newark. The tremendous outpouring of the voters and their enthusiasm, convinced the Democrats that the Republicans would lose the electoral vote of the State. Democratic party stole my place. Mr. Cleveland is to speak in Newark to-morrow night. Democrats and others are wondering if history will repeat itself."

Watson is Bitter. MACON, GA., Nov. 3.—Thomas E. Watson, Populist candidate for President, spoke here to-day at Central Park, where a large crowd gathered to hear him. The crowd which heard him was not large, but there was evidently a liberal sprinkling of those of his own faith among the audience, which cheered vociferously as the speaker clinched a point. He was riding in a special car, containing for things that he formerly denounced.

"What would you think of a Baptist who would reply, when asked as to what he believed, 'I can't tell you until after the next election meeting?' That is exactly what Parker did in a political sense. Who is Parker? We know of Grover Cleveland and Bryan before they became candidates, but who heard of Parker until the Democrats decided to run him for President?"

Referring to the accusations that he was in the pay of the Republican party, Mr. Watson said:

"How do I meet the expenses of my campaign? Because I am rich enough to do it, and you all know I made it in the courthouse, and with my pen. I have in the warehouse of Augusta two hundred and fifty bales of cotton, with more to come."

"The battle will not end on November 8th. I shall continue with all those who are with me, to build up a party of Jeffersonian, and not Hamiltonian, principles. You had just as well throw your vote away on me as on Parker, for if you cast your vote for him I will be sure to throw it away. If the Democrats surely thrown away. If the Democrats surely thrown away. If the Democrats surely thrown away."

Mr. Watson referred feelingly to the fact that the educational fund had been received as a charity student at Mercer University, located in this city. At the conclusion of his address the big body of Mercer students who were in attendance rallied around him and made the rafters ring with their college yell."

Double Meetings. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Nov. 3.—Politics were extremely lively last night at Palmouth, in Stafford county. Both the Democrats and Republicans had mass meetings, and speakers from a distance were at each. At the Democratic meeting Congressman John F. Rixey, Lieutenant Governor Joseph E. Willard and District Elector C. C. Carlin were speakers. A fine audience was present and close attention was given to the speeches. Notwithstanding efforts made on the outside to draw the crowd away.

At the Republican meeting, which was only a short distance away, the speakers were Mr. E. L. Howard, of Herndon, Fairfax county, Republican candidate for Congress in the Eighth District, who is opposing Congressman Rixey, Democratic candidate for re-election, and W. D. King, of Blount, Loudoun county. At this meeting a much smaller crowd was present."

ROBERT E. LEE, JR. Large and Enthusiastic Crowds Greet Him in the Southwest. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) JONESTOWN, VA., Nov. 3.—Colonel Robert E. Lee, Jr., addressed a large and enthusiastic audience yesterday at the courthouse here. It being understood that Colonel Lee was a grandson of General Lee and great-grandson of Harry Lee, for whom the county was named, he drew a large crowd. No speaker has come to Lee county in the present campaign whose speech has received with more enthusiasm. He made a splendid argument on the political issues, and the people went away well pleased and encouraged. On Monday he spoke at Ewing, this county, to a good crowd; on Tuesday at Nurseries, where he had a splendid audience, and on Wednesday at Midway, where he had packed house. To-morrow he will speak at Blackwater. Colonel Lee is doing a good work, especially for Mr. Wisor.

EXPECTS WYSOR TO WIN. Attorney-General Anderson Sanguiue After Visit to Ninth. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., November 3.—Attorney-General William A. Anderson stopped here this afternoon en route from the Ninth District to Richmond. Major Anderson spoke in four of the counties of the district, and he is confident that he will carry the district. Major Anderson says apathy has almost wholly disappeared among the Democrats, and they are now enthusiastic and fully aroused. He expects to see a full vote all over the district."

Speech at Pocahontas. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) POCAHONTAS, VA., November 3.—The largest political audience of the season greeted Attorney-General William A. Anderson at the Opera House here last night, and the impression seemed a most favorable one.

The Major had the attention of the audience for nearly two hours, discussing the principal issues of the campaign and the duty of every patriotic citizen to vote the Democratic ticket. His discussion of the tariff question was very plain and convincing, showing the increased cost of living under the present protective tariff. He discussed the hard times from 1890 to 1897, showing that they were not due to a Democratic administration, but that other nations suffered during the same period as well as the United States. He declared that the Republican party had nothing to do with the present prosperous times; that they were not a result of Republican policies. He referred to the attitude of the administration toward the South, and called attention to the absence of Southern men in Roosevelt's Cabinet. He closed with a reference to Joseph C. Wisor, nominee for Congress in the district, and stated that his ability as a debater was a revelation to his constituents in the Constitutional Convention. He declared that Wisor would be a peer of any man in Congress, and that he was the world's wisest to enter the second time with him in debate. He expressed confidence that if the full vote of the district is polled Wisor will be elected by fifteen hundred majority or more, and closed with an eloquent appeal to the Democrats to come to the polls and vote. The Major expressed his pleasure at the presence of many ladies."

Inspection Is Concluded. Companies G and H, of the Seventeenth Regiment of Virginia Infantry, underwent the annual inspection last night, Colonel Jo Lane Stern, assistant inspector general, serving as inspector. Both companies were in excellent shape, but Company C, the Guard of the Commonwealth, as it was known under the old regime, was commended as being the best equipped and conditioned company in the regiment. George N. Shipwith commands the company, and is naturally proud of its excellent showing."

If Sorosis Shook paid the dealer a large profit they would be sold in every city in the country—but the dealer cannot raise the price and we will not lower the quality.—Adv.

Uncle Sam says it's all right

Uncle Sam, in the person of ten of his government officials, is always in charge of every department of our distillery. During the entire process of distillation, after the whiskey is stored in barrels in our warehouses, during the seven years it remains there, from the very grain we buy to the whiskey you get, Uncle Sam is constantly on the watch. We dare not take a gallon of our own whiskey from our own warehouse unless he says it's all right. And when he does say so, that whiskey goes direct to you, with all its original strength, richness and flavor, carrying a UNITED STATES REGISTERED DISTILLER'S GUARANTEE OF PURITY and AGE, and saving the dealers' enormous profits. That's why HAYNER WHISKEY is the best for medicinal purposes. That's why it is preferred for other uses. That's why we have over a quarter of a million satisfied customers. That's why YOU should try it. Your money back if you're not satisfied.

Direct from our distillery to YOU
Saves dealers' profits. Prevents adulteration.

HAYNER WHISKEY

PURE SEVEN-YEAR-OLD RYE

4 FULL QUARTS $3.20

EXPRESS CHARGES PAID BY US

OUR OFFER We will send you FOUR FULL QUART BOTTLES of HAYNER'S SEVEN-YEAR-OLD RYE for $3.20 and we will pay the express charges. Try it and if you don't find it all right and as good as you ever drank or can buy from anybody else at any price, then send it back at our expense and your $3.20 will be returned to you by next mail. Just think that offer over. How could it be fairer? If you are not perfectly satisfied, you are not out a cent. Better let us send you a trial order. We ship in a plain sealed case, no marks to show what's inside. Orders for Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington or Wyoming, must be on the basis of 4 Quarts for $4.00 by Express Prepaid, or 20 Quarts for $16.00 by Freight Prepaid. Write our nearest office and do it NOW.

ESTABLISHED 1850 THE HAYNER DISTILLING COMPANY DISTILLERY TROY, O.
163 ATLANTA, GA. DAYTON, OHIO ST. LOUIS, MO. ST. PAUL, MINN.

the Democrats and Republicans had mass meetings, and speakers from a distance were at each. At the Democratic meeting Congressman John F. Rixey, Lieutenant Governor Joseph E. Willard and District Elector C. C. Carlin were speakers. A fine audience was present and close attention was given to the speeches. Notwithstanding efforts made on the outside to draw the crowd away.

At the Republican meeting, which was only a short distance away, the speakers were Mr. E. L. Howard, of Herndon, Fairfax county, Republican candidate for Congress in the Eighth District, who is opposing Congressman Rixey, Democratic candidate for re-election, and W. D. King, of Blount, Loudoun county. At this meeting a much smaller crowd was present."

ROBERT E. LEE, JR. Large and Enthusiastic Crowds Greet Him in the Southwest. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) JONESTOWN, VA., Nov. 3.—Colonel Robert E. Lee, Jr., addressed a large and enthusiastic audience yesterday at the courthouse here. It being understood that Colonel Lee was a grandson of General Lee and great-grandson of Harry Lee, for whom the county was named, he drew a large crowd. No speaker has come to Lee county in the present campaign whose speech has received with more enthusiasm. He